On 3-16-26, I Sgt. C. Tally, was dispatched to a 911 hang up. When I arrived, I made contact with Devon Dunham. Devon told me that he was sitting in his front room when he witnessed his neighbor, Semira Johnson, who lives at 925 SW 35th St. come onto his property and break his front room window. She then kicked one of his flower pots and knocked over his mailbox. She then returned to her residence. Devon said that he wanted to press charges for the damage. Devon said that Semira accused him of looking into her windows, but Devon said he was standing on a chair fixing an AC line.

I went to 925 SW 35th St and made contact with Semira. I asked her what was going on with Devon. Semira told me that earlier on 3-16-26, she witnessed Devon standing on a chair next to her house. She said he was looking into her windows. She went outside to confront Devon. by the time she had made it outside, Devon was off the chair and he was at her mailbox looking through the mail. Semira told him to get out of her mailbox, as she did, Devon turned around and hit Semira in her phone/hand. See Officer Northrop's report (Case number 2026-00020473). Semira has the assault on video.

I told Semira that we were at her house because Devon had accused her of damaging her property. Semira told me that she did break his window and she kicked his flower pot. She denied damaging the mailbox.

Semira was issued an arrest and summons for damaging private property (citation number E0212655). She was instructed to call the municipal court within 14 days of 3-16-26.
