Important information to be aware of:

- Your credit report information may have changed since the date above: This page shows your credit report information as it appeared at the date above, when we provided the investigation results that you are currently reviewing. To view your full credit report information, please go to transunion.com/fullreport and login using the same username and password you use on this website. Then follow the order process to access your free disclosure of your full credit report.
- Important information about your rights under the law: To see your rights under federal law, visit <https://www.transunion.com/legal/bill-of-rights/TX>. This page provides important details about your rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act and applicable state laws that relate to the dispute process. Consumers who believe they may be possible victims of fraudulent activity may also visit and www.transunion.com/fraud-alerts
- Information in your credit report is updated frequently which means items you disputed may not appear on your credit report or have already changed by the time we received your dispute. In most cases, the Date Updated represents the last time the account information was updated or reported by the data furnisher. Please note that this date may not change following our investigation of your dispute. For Payment Received and Last Payment Made, please keep in mind, the data may not represent very recent payment activity.
- If you are experiencing a financial hardship related to a public health emergency or your personal circumstances, you can add a consumer statement to your credit file to explain your situation by visiting us at www.transunion.com/credit-help.

Accounts

Typically, creditors report any changes made to your account information monthly. This means that some accounts listed below may not reflect the most recent activity until the creditor's next reporting. This information may include things such as balances, payments, dates, remarks, ratings, etc. The rating key is provided to help you understand some of the account information that could be reported. Pay Status represents the current status of accounts and indicates how you are currently paying. For accounts that have been paid and closed, sold, or transferred, Pay Status represents the last reported status of the account.

-  TransUnion is now including some Buy Now, Pay Later (BNPL) installment loans, also known as a "point-of-sale installment loans" on credit reports. At this time, BNPL information provided to TransUnion is visible to you, but scoring providers, lenders, insurers or other authorized companies that may access your credit report will not be able to use this data. As a result, it will not affect credit decisions or credit scores calculated using TransUnion data. In the future, Buy Now, Pay Later may be factored in to credit scores and credit decisions (for example, account opening or account review decisions). Visit our FAQs to learn more.

For account information other than payment history, we may show brackets > < to indicate information that may negatively affect your credit health.

Accounts with Adverse Information

Adverse information typically remains on your credit file for up to 7 years from the date of the delinquency. To help you understand what is generally considered adverse, we have added >brackets< to those items in this report. For any account that contains medical information, the information following 'Medical-' is not displayed to anyone but you except where permitted by law. For your protection, your account numbers have been partially masked, and in some cases scrambled. Please note: Account are reported as Current; Paid or paying as agreed if paid within 30 days of the due date. Accounts reported as Current may still incur late fees or interest charges if not paid on or before the due date.
